
The project “Arts connects generations”

FUNDACJA PROJEKT
STARSİ

About the project

The project is aimed at senior citizens aged 60+ and young people in the age range: 18-35 from the area Warsaw and Raszyn (village near Warsaw).

The Norwegian NGO Kinsarvik Bygdekvinnelag is a partner in the project.

The goals of the project

- to increase active participation of members of the local community by intergenerational integration,
 - to build positive relations and cooperation between elderly and young residents of the community,
 - to develop of the creative potential of young and old,
 - to encourage of lifelong learning.
-

The goals of the project will be realized through intergenerational creative workshops:

- filmmaking,
 - screen printing,
 - theater meetings "Theater at First Sight",
 - making traditional Christmas decorations,
 - dance party with exhibition of works,
 - a social campaign to countering ageism and age-related stereotypes.
-

Our partnership

The aim of the partnership is:

- to exchange good practice,
 - to learn from norwegian experiences in the area of intergenerational activities, and concepts of social campaigns against ageism between local NGOs Polish and Norwegian NGOs.
-

A study visit in Norway

- 2 meetings.
 - The first meeting with local activists of the organization Kinsarvik Bygdekvinnelag and the local community. The Norwegian side will prepare a presentation including the most interesting and effective intergenerational activities that integrate the local community.
 - For the second meeting, the Norwegian organization will prepare examples of 2- 3 social campaigns. Using the Norwegian experience, the participants will develop the basis for the creation of campaigns by the Polish side.
-

A visit in Poland

- 4 persons for 6 nights
 - Proposed date: January 2025
 - dance party with a local group.
 - a presentation on all intergenerational activities implemented in the project and materials for the social
 - Visiting Warsaw, National Opera, tour
 - The Project Promoter will cover all expenses specified in budget connected with study visit in Poland and Norway.
-

